🕒 Motor Minute > New Villages, a new concept that is catching on for many families will have the feel of a small town, where people know their neighbors, shop at the same local markets, and won't need to own a second car.

👤 Doc Dré & Billy Cox (Fritz Car Care Ctr) > Trouble smells, their importance, and tips for diagnosing them.

?? Know It All > If you are pulling a load with an automatic transmission equipped car or light truck, you should start out in the D or Drive position, then shift into OD or overdrive once you reach highway speeds. True or False?

?? Know It All > Don't change the automatic transmission fluid until it is burnt. If you do, you are wasting your money unnecessarily. True or False?

🔧 Car Care Tip > When taking into consideration initial investment, insurance, fuel and maintenance, your motor vehicle is probably your biggest investment, coming in second only to owning a home. But, do you treat it as such?

✉ Mailbag letter from Alan Jackson, NJ > The dealer recommends the tires be balanced every 12,000 miles. Is this interval is necessary, or just another attempt by the dealer to make money. They also say the "rear brakes be adjusted and cleaned" every 6,000 miles. Is this necessary? Will it void the manufacturer's warranty?
