Safety Minute > Electronic Stability Control is remarkably effective in preventing single vehicle crashes—especially SUV rollovers.

Know It All > Once you reach your point of destination after driving for a long trip, you should not cut the car off instantly, but should let the engine idle for a few minutes first. True or False?

Car Care Tip > Repeat fuel pump failures can often be traced to debris left behind by the failed pump.

Mailbag letters from:

1. Kitty (Live Oak FL) > We wanted to know if you could tell us some products to use for polishing faded headlight covers. The products we have used in the past have worked only marginally

2. Tim (Athens GA) > Regarding the cloudy headlight lens, you should note that Chrysler products are notorious for this problem. Chrysler lenses also yellow very badly. Any idea why? Who sells those polishing kits?

Sound Byte > Gallagher: "People don't know how to stop at a stop sign or turn left"

Motoring Musical Memory > 1958 Ford Edsel TV commercial.
